

CPED UPDATES

University of the Philippines
National College of Public Administration and Governance
Center for Policy and Executive Development

September-October 2009

9th Cycle of the Congressional Internship Program for Young Muslim Leaders (Academic Course on Public Policy Development and Advocacy)

The United States Agency for International Development (USAID) through its Growth with Equity in Mindanao Project (GEM3), together with the Mindanao State University and the House of Representatives (HOR) teamed up with CPED to provide an intensive two-week structured learning course on public policy analysis and development for 25 Muslim interns. This program was conducted from 24 August to 4 September 2009 at Room 307 in NCPAG.

The interns are presently with the different Representatives and Committees in HOR. They are expected to return for their policy paper oral defense by November 2009.

Department of National Planning & Monitoring
Papua New Guinea

Training Programme on Aid Management for Government Officials

With funding support from the United Nations Development Programme, CPED recently concluded the first phase of the Course for aid management and development policy officers of the Government of Papua New Guinea. The first phase was held at Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea from 28 September to 02 October 2009.

A total of 26 participants attended the course. The schedule and arrangement for the succeeding two phases of the course are under negotiation.

Development and Institutionalization of Integrity Indicators in Key HRM Areas

One of the missions of the CSC in its strategic initiatives for 2009-2011 is giving importance in imbibing the value of integrity among each and every civil servant.

In line with this, CPED in partnership with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and the CSC-Personnel Policies and Standard Office (PPSO) is proposing a research study on formulating integrity indicators on identified HRM areas to improve work performance.

The study entails three phases: (1) research study on existing integrity systems and practices adopted by government agencies; (2) formulation and design of integrity indicators on recruitment, appointment, performance evaluation and promotion and; (3) briefing on the use of the integrity indicators.

The project is currently in the process of signing the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA).

People Management Training for the Office of the Solicitor General (OSG) Lawyers and Non-Lawyers

CPED is making final arrangements for the conduct of a pilot training program on people management for the Office of the Solicitor-General (OSG).

The training program is intended to enhance the managerial knowledge and skills of 20 Assistant Solicitor-Generals (ASGs). The training program design has been submitted to OSG for their review.

CPED

University of the Philippines
National College of Public Administration and Governance
Center for Policy and Executive Development

UPDATES

September-October 2009