

U.P. NATIONAL COLLEGE OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION AND GOVERNANCE
University of the Philippines
Diliman, Quezon City

U.P. NCPAG ALUMNI ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS 2008

The NCPAG Alumni Achievement Awards (NCPAG AAA) aims to recognize and honor past and present members of the U.P. NCPAG Community, especially alumni, who have distinguished themselves in their respective careers, sectors and fields of practice. Highlighting their achievements confirms the status of the NCPAG as the premier centre of excellence for governance education and training. The recognition also highlights the crucial role of the U.P. NCPAG in moulding leaders and policy-makers not only for the country but the international community as well.

The NCPAG AAA is one of the major events to celebrate the 56th Anniversary of the U.P. NCPAG in 2008. The awarding ceremonies will be held during the Annual Homecoming of the College on 15 June 2008.

WHO MAY BE NOMINATED

For the Outstanding Alumni Awards Category, nomination is open to all holders of academic degrees (BAPA, MPA, DPA) obtained from the U.P. National College of Public Administration and Governance (U.P.NCPAG) or from its institutional predecessors (i.e. Institute of Public Administration (IPA), the Graduate School of Public Administration (GSPA) and the College of Public Administration (CPA).

Nominees for the Special Recognition Award Category is open to any person who has (1) underwent special training courses under the College; (2) earned at least 60 academic units for BAPA, or fifty percent of graduate unit requirements, and has not been dismissed for misconduct or scholastic deficiency; OR (3) a past or present member of the faculty or staff of the College.

In both categories, the nominee should not have been a recipient of an Outstanding Alumni Award or its equivalent from the U.P. NCPAG or from the U.P. NCPAG Alumni Association.

Nominees must have rendered outstanding service, exhibited a high degree of success, or distinguished themselves in their respective professions or fields of endeavour, and brought honor to the U.P. NCPAG community.
